雅思口语测试第一部分必备 30 题(参考回答)

1. What's your full name?

My full name is Bill English.

2. Does your Chinese name have any special meaning?

Yes, it does. It means ocean. Actually, my father wants me to have an open mind as big as an ocean.

3. Do you have any siblings /sisters or brothers?

Yes, I have two lovely sisters. Both are studying at the university. One of them is in Hong Kong and the other in Palmerston North, here in NZ. I love them very much.

4. What university are you in? What is your major?

Well, I didn't go to any university. But I studied at an academy named North Shore International Academy. I studied a Level 5 diploma course in hospitality.

5. What do you like most about your school?

To be honest, I like the way the teachers here deliver lessons. The lessons are full of fun and interesting stuff. We can always learn new things in a very good mood.

6. Do you live in a flat or a house? What do you think of the area in which you live?

I live in a house. But it's quite small. Well, I like the location. It's close to the motorway so I can get to work easily.

7. How do you describe your hometown? What's the weather like in your city?

My hometown is a beautiful seashore city. There are lovely beaches, amusement parks and shopping malls / mansions. It has a tropical climate with warmer temperatures. It won't be too cold in the winter or too hot in the summer.

8. Which is your least favorite season? What do you do on cold days?

Um, my least favorite season? I think it must be winter. Cos (Because) during the winter, it gets cold and dry, which makes me sick/uncomfortable. On cold days, I would go shopping with friends cos as you know, there is central heating in the mall.

9. What kinds of shops are there near your home?

A great variety of them. There are appliance shops, supermarkets, fish shops, the butcher's shop, the barber's shop, fruits and veges (vegetables) shops, bakeries, video rental shops, etc.

10. What are the main agricultural products in your region / province / country?

I think rice is the main agricultural product in my region. Cos rice is the staple crop in south China and most people eat rice for three meals.

11. What is the public transport like in your city?

It is absolutely convenient to use the public transport. For example, in my city, there are many minibuses, buses, and stage coaches.

12. How do you describe yourself?

Well, it's always hard to describe self. But I would say I am most of time quiet but sometimes outgoing, especially with friends, and occasionally, competitive.

13. What kind of music do you like? When and where do you usually listen to music?

I like pop R & B the most, though I am not against other genres. I usually listen to music while driving or cooking.

14. Who is your favorite writer?

Oh, this is hard. Cos I never read through a book completely. But I would say J. K. Rowling, who wrote Harry Potter. It's an amazing novel with intriguing/engaging stories.

15. What's your favorite part of the day? What's the worst part of your day?

Well, definitely evening. Because my brain becomes hyperactive at nights so I could do things more effectively and efficiently. But that also makes me feel hard to fall asleep. Well, definitely morning. Because I like sleeping in and hate getting up so early.

16. What kind of clothes do you prefer to wear? How important do you think it is to be fashionable?

Well, I like casual clothes. Because they make me feel more comfortable and less flaunty. Well, although I don't want to fall behind the fashion world, however, I won't show off myself by overly dressing.

17. Are there any kinds of food you do not like?

I don't like fast food. Although it looks delicious/tasty and tastes good, it's very unhealthy.

18. Do you often talk about TV programmes with friends?

No, I don't often watch TV. I don't even have a TV at home. I talk about games with friends instead.

19. In what way do people use computers in your country? How computer literate are you?

Most people in my country use computer for Internet surfing, game playing and communication through social networking programs / applications. I would say I am an intermediate level computer user.

20. Is crime a problem in your city/region/country?

Actually, I am not too sure how bad it is in my city / region / country. As you know, it is always a problem everywhere. But where I live is quite safe.

21. Is keeping fit popular in China? How do you usually exercise?

Yes, it is. Everyone in China is keen on body-building; they want to have a good shape. For elderly people, they normally go to parks to practise Taiqi or Qigong. For younger generations, they usually go to gyms for all sorts of exercises. So do I.

22. Do you like animals? Do you like photography?

Yes, I do. I love kitties. They are really cute. Um, I am a terrible photo-taker. I always screwed it up.

23. Are weddings important in China? What happens during the wedding?

Yes, I think so. As far as I am concerned/for my part, it is one of most important rituals in life for everybody. There is a wedding ceremony and then a party. At the party, people make toasts and speeches. Sometimes the speeches are very long and boring. There is some music and dancing. And of course, there is a lot of food and drink.

24. How do people celebrate birthdays in your country?

They usually invite relatives and friends to a dinner party. Apart from a beautiful birthday cake, there is lots of food and drink served.

25. Do people celebrate any foreign festivals in your country?

Yes, they do. Celebrating Christmas is a case in point.

26. What industries are there in your country?

Well, in my country, there are many industries such as agriculture, mining, technology, electronic sector, etc. Factories and industrial buildings can be found everywhere.

27. Can you tell me about any unusual sports in your country?

Well, rope jumping and shuttlecock kicking are something I could think of.

28. Do you think it is important to be on time? How do you feel when others are late?

Certainly, I think so. To be punctual is a virtue in China and everywhere else. I would be quite annoyed.

29. What's your definition of culture / tradition?

In my opinion, culture is everything we experience in a society. It has to do with different social values and practices.

30. What's your plan for your future career?

I would like to establish my own business in the future. I have been studying hospitality for a long time. Having my own restaurant or café is my dream.